

To make your reservation complete, you need to agree to the Terms and Conditions of African Travels. We ask you to read through the Terms and Conditions of African Travels carefully.

Your booking is only confirmed after a written confirmation from African Travels (by e-mail to your email address). From that day following rules apply. Should African Travels for whatever reason do not accept your booking you will receive the amount paid return.

By paying you sign our Terms & Conditions and understand that it is a condition of booking that all travelers must contact their insurers to confirm that the cover they have arranged is appropriate for the requirements, given the remote nature of travel, and that any hazardous activities you may intend to undertake including scuba diving, trekking Kilimanjaro, grade 5 white-water rafting, volunteer work and bungee jumping, are fully covered.

The traveler agrees and confirms that he/she is aware of the fact that you are booking a tour during the Covid pandemic. You are aware that the government of your home country might have issued a negative travel advice for the African destination you are traveling to. Your government may label it as a destination with serious health risks or area where dangerous situations may arise for travelers. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs might advise to travel to this area only if it is essential. The trip you have booked is essential for you and you are aware that the Ministry advises you - if you decide to travel anyway - to prepare very well.

You are aware that the travel advice is not obligatory: it remains your own responsibility to decide to go and that of the travel organisation to decide whether or not to allow a trip can take place.

Corona positive

If a traveler is not allowed to fly or travel due to a positive corona test, additional costs for amending/extending the trip, additional hotel nights, transfers, flight changes, are for the travelers own account. African Travels cannot be liable for any extra costs if you can't travel due to a positive Covid-19 test. We will however assist you wherever we can. Most travel insurances will cover these costs.
